

Knud E Hansen lands a Canadian deal

Danish naval architect company Knud E Hansen, in partnership with Fleetway, has signed a contract with the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador for a series of six small passenger ships, plus one ferry.

The ferry for Fogo island stands out in design, and is a small ferry for 64 cars and 200 passengers. It will have a service speed of 14 knots (4 knots in ice conditions).

The series of six vessels is for 41m ships, with a passenger capacity of 36 with multi-use cargo decks. They will be built locally in Newfoundland and Labrador.
